Instructions

The applicant may use this affidavit along with the one (1) proof of Florida residential address documents provided by the individual whose name is on the documents to meet the Florida residential address requirements. The Certification of Address document must be complete, legible, and signed by the applicant and the individual who is certifying the customer resides at their address.

- Minors residing with their parents may provide two (2) documents that show their Florida residential address in the name of the parent/guardian who is signing the parental consent form or follow the process for persons with no proof of Florida residential address.
- Persons presenting one address requirement in their name may use the Certification of Address form with Section A completed self-certifying their residential address. The Certification of Address will serve as the 2nd proof of residential address document.
- Persons with no proof of residential address documents – A person who cannot provide two (2) documents that show their name and current residential address may provide a minimum of one (1) document in the name of the person they reside with along with document(s) demonstrating family relationship, OR a completed Certification of Address document.

Acceptable documents demonstrating family relationship may include, but are not limited to:

- Marriage certificate
 - Military dependent identification card
 - Birth certificate
 - Adoption record
- Customers applying for a Class E driver license or ID card, who are homeless and reside in an agency where housing services are provided (homeless shelter, probation home, etc.) may provide a letter from the housing agency with the residential address and statement that the customer resides at the location and a Certification of Address document with Section A completed self-certifying their residential address. The Certification of Address will serve as the 2nd proof of residential address document. A Certification of Address may not be used by Commercial Learner's Permit (CLP) and Commercial Driver License (CDL) holders.

Homeless Certification Letters may come from:

- Homeless Shelter or Public Assistance Agency
- Local School District Homeless Education Liaison
- Foster Parent/Department of Children and Families

Customers who are homeless and do not reside in an agency where housing services are provided (homeless shelter, probation home, etc.), may provide a Certification of Address document with Section A completed self-certifying their residential address as General Delivery.
